Answer

MINISTER OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (DR. RAGHUVANSH PRASAD SINGH)

(a) to (e) The State Government of Kamataka had submitted a proposal to Planning Commission seeking financial assistance to establish a Rural Management Institute in Ramanagar Taluk of Banglore Rural District on the lines of the Institute of Rural Management, Anand. The proposal examined in consultation with the Ministry of Agriculture, the Department of Animal Husbandry, Dairy & Fisheries was not approved by the Planning Commission as the latter Department has no scheme to support such an initiative. However, State Government was advised to submit a proposal to the Planning Commission for one time Additional Central Assistance.
